

Zion's Joy!

ZION'S JOY! Bio

Zion's Joy! is comprised of melodious voices, with a mission to unite the world in love through praising our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The theme of Zion's Joy! is taken from Isaiah 51:3 where it concludes that in Zion "joy and gladness will be found in it, thanksgiving and the voice of melody".

Zion's Joy! was founded by Robert W. Stevenson in 2008 (initially named Zion's Voice) and was featured on the song "Praise Him in the Dance" from Richard O. Jackson's debut CD release, He Who's Invisible. Zion's Joy! has taken their ministry to numerous churches and venues throughout the United States.

With a blend of tight, rich harmonies, and powerful lead vocals, Zion's Joy! delivers a unique brand of old and new school gospel / contemporary Christian music. Indiana Gospel Music Association president Ken Gates describes their live ministry performance as "electric, moving, and a must see."

The members of Zion's Joy! are active in their churches and have answered the call to go spread the Word of God to the masses. Being an evangelistic music ministry, Zion's Joy! loves to encourage and witness others giving their hearts to Christ. With Zion's Joy!, every listener will hear the heartbeat of praise, worship, salvation, and celebration.

In continuing our mission to unite the world in praise, Zion's Joy! has released their new project What Would Heaven Look Like, being the title song of the project and the single release along with uptempo praise songs like Continuous Praise, Celebrate, and 'Tis So Sweet that are crowd favorites.

If you listen closely, you'll hear Heaven's voice through Zion's Joy!

On "Continuous Praise (Over and Over)," Zion's Joy!, an eleven-member multicultural gospel group from Indianapolis, evokes Kirk Franklin's ensembles with its staccato vocals, musical swagger, ear candy hooks, and professional production.

It's a praise song with the zest to lift congregants up out of the pews and into the aisles, especially during the vamp, when the singers move into Friends of Distinction mode and begin singing contrapuntal motives.

A workout mix, released in February, accentuates the electronica to optimize aerobic effort.

Founded in 2008 by Richard W. Stevenson and originally called Zion's Voice, Zion's Joy! anticipates releasing an album later this spring.
